

Contractual wages and salaries

November 2010

The index of wages according to collective labour agreements measures the evolution of wages and salaries (per employee or per hour) determined by contractual provisions set by collective agreements; the indices are calculated with reference to the fixed employment structure of the base period (December 2005).

At the end of November 2010 the coverage rate (share of national collective agreements in force for the wage setting aspects) was 62.1 per cent in terms of employees and 59.2 per cent in terms of the total amount of wages.

In November 2010 both the hourly wage index and the index per employee increased by 0.2 per cent compared to the previous month and by 1.7 per cent compared November 2009. During period January-November 2010 compared to the same period of previous year both the hourly wage index and the one per employee increased by 2.2 per cent.
