

Contractual wages and salaries

November 2013

The index of wages according to collective labour agreements measures the evolution of wages and salaries (per employee or per hour) determined by contractual provisions set by collective agreements; the indices are calculated with reference to the fixed employment structure of the base period (December 2010).

At the end of November 2013 the coverage rate (share of national collective agreements in force for the wage setting aspects) was 51.1 per cent in terms of employees and 49.4 per cent in terms of the total amount of wages.

In November 2013 compared to the previous month, the hourly index was unchanged while the per employee index increased by 0.1 per cent. Compared with November 2012 the hourly wage index increased by 1.3 per cent, while the per employee index rose by 1.4 per cent. During the period January-November 2013 both indices increased by 1.4 per cent compared to the same period of the previous year.
