

Anti-violence Centres

Year 2017

For the first time Istat carried out a survey about services offered by anti-violence Centres to victimized women. Survey in partnership with the Italian Department for Equal Opportunities (DEO), Regions and the National Research Council

49,152
women contacted an anti-violence center

253
CENTRES

69%
H24
availability
ANTI-VIOLENCE
CENTRE

29,227
women tried a way out of violence
(59%)

Women taken in charge by each Centre

64% with children	27% foreigner women
--------------------------	----------------------------

95%
of Centres adhere to the toll-free number 1522*

* DEO's number against stalking and violence

86%
of Centres work through networks in the territory

Psychological support*

- 100% acceptance and listening
- 99% legal advice and support
- 98% psychological support
- 98% orientation, assistance and other services
- 95% design of a path to safety
- 94% job orientation
- 87% housing support
- 81% support for minor children

* directly by the Centre or with other structures