

The use of SD on non-food products

Statistics Norway has an application that deals with scanner data on non-food products, but for the moment we are only using a small part of the data and only one GTIN matched to one representative item. The purpose of the presentation is to show how Statistics Norway would try to make more use of the SD in a new production system, focusing on the linking process between the GTIN and COICOP.

Statistics Norway - Rønnevik